

David Naegele, Performer and Clinician, Trumpet

David Naegele actively performs for a variety of music groups and organizations in and out of Wisconsin. Currently he is Co-Principal Trumpet of the Sheboygan Symphony Orchestra. As of 2007, he is also a regular performer with the Dubuque Symphony Orchestra, the Beloit-Janesville Symphony Orchestra and the Jeff Perronto Jazz Orchestra of Madison.

He has also performed with the LaCrosse Symphony Orchestra, the Festival City Symphony of Milwaukee and the Waukesha Symphony Orchestra. In the spring of 2007 he was a featured soloist with the Homestead High School Wind Ensemble. In 2005 & 2006, David performed with the National Festival Orchestra of New York at Carnegie Hall with conductors Lukas Foss and Benjamin Zander. Prior engagements included the Domaine-Forget International Festival of Brass 2004 in Quebec, Canada, and the Aspen Music Festival 2003 performing with conductors James Conlon, David Zinman, James DePriest, Sergiu Commisiona and Julius Rudel. He also participated in Present Music Milwaukee's 2004 recording of the world premiere of Henry Bryant's composition "Wind, Water, Clouds and Fire"

David has performed in master classes given by trumpet virtuosos Hakan Hardenberger, Steven Burns and Adolph Herseth. He also appeared at Northwestern University's Summer Brass Clinic, with the American Brass Quintet in Aspen and most recently with the Dallas Brass.

He has studied with Barbara Butler of Northwestern University, the late Vincent Chicowicz, formerly of the Chicago Symphony, Raymond Mase of the Julliard School, Kevin Hartman of UW-Milwaukee and Dennis Najoom of the Milwaukee Symphony.

David is a 2006 graduate of UW-Milwaukee where he double majored with Bachelor of Fine Arts degrees in Music Education and Wind Performance.