

Sr. Marion Verhaalen, SSSF is a well-known performing pianist, composer, arranger and music pedagogue. She has taught at Alverno College, the Wisconsin Conservatory of Music, and presently teaches at Cardinal Stritch University. She has published six books and composed and arranged a large, varied repertoire of music for piano, voice, choral groups and instruments, including a children's opera, Under the Greenwood Tree, and an oratorio, Judith. She has given piano pedagogy workshops throughout Brazil and the US and spent a semester at the Federal University in Porto Alegre as a Fulbright Visiting Professor. Her recent publication, Camargo Guarnieri, Brazilian Composer: A Study Of His Creative Life And Works, is published by Indiana U. Press.