

MILWAUKEE CHORISTERS
SPRING CONCERT SET FOR May 7/8
AT WISCONSIN LUTHERAN COLLEGE

The Milwaukee Choristers will continue their celebration of the past 10 years under the direction of Dr. James B. Kinchen, Jr., when they present "Reprises 1994 - 2003". The Spring Concert by the 75-voice community chorus will take place at 8 p.m. on Friday, May 7 and Saturday, May 8, in Schwan Hall of Wisconsin Lutheran College.

Advance tickets for the concert are available at $12 per person. The cost for individual tickets purchased at the door will be $15. Other options include a senior ticket for $10 and a student ticket for $5. Tickets may be purchased from members of the chorus or by calling 414/354-1933.

As a continuation of the Choristers' "Back To Our Roots" project, The A Cappella Choir of Wisconsin Lutheran High School, under the direction of Ned Goede, will perform. The Choristers began in 1933 as a high school alumni chorus.

Kinchen, who lives in Sturtevant and is a member of the music faculty at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside, was selected by the Choristers as their conductor in 1993. The diverse program he has put together for the Spring Concert ranges from Te Deum by Franz Josef Haydn; Sicut Cervus by Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina; Alleluia and Choose Something Like A Star by Randall Thompson to such selections as the late Moses Hogan's popular arrangement of The Battle Of Jericho; Betty Jacobson's Blessed Be God; the James Erb arrangement of Shenandoah; and a medley of selections from George Gershwin's Porgy and Bess as arranged by Ed Lojeski.

All concert seating is general admission.
