Tonight's cello soloist, Adam Ayers, 16, began his cello studies at the age of 3 1/2. He is a junior at Waukesha West High School, where in addition to playing in orchestra, he is a member of the Academic Decathlon Team. He studies with Scott Cook at the String Academy of Wisconsin. Adam's awards include winning the Waukesha Symphony League Middle School and High School Scholarships, winning the String Academy's cello concerto competition, and earning the WSMA Exemplary Soloist Award. Adam has attended the Indiana University Summer String Academy for the past two years and performed in masterclasses taught by Lynn Harrell and Gary Hoffman.
