

ANA RUTH BERMUDEZ

Cellist. Wisconsin Conservatory of Music, and Latino Arts faculty member. Skylight Opera.. B.M. in Cello Performance, Instituto Superior de Arte de La Havana (Cuba); Certificate of Study, Tchaikovsky Conservatory, Moscow, Russia.

Ms. Bermudez has played in the International Chamber Orchestra of Moscow and in the Havana Chamber Orchestra, of which she became artistic director in 1991.

She taught cello at Havana's National School of Music and Higher Institute of Art, Cuba; "Simon Bolivar" Conservatory of Music and University Institute of Musical Studies in Caracas, Venezuela. In 1982 she participated in the VII Tchaikovsky International Competition, Moscow. She has been performing as a soloist and in chamber groups in concert and International festivals in Cuba, Russia, Spain, Venezuela, Brazil, Mexico, and USA, including the recent premiere of a solo cello piece written for her at the Miami International Composers Festival.

She has recorded for television, theater, radio and film in Cuba, Spain, Venezuela, and USA.

1324 W. Birch Ct.. Milwaukee, WI 53209 / 414 540 5587 / 414 736 4620
ruth40@hotmail.com

August 12, 2005