

Phi Beta, a professional, co-ed, fraternity for music, art, dance, speech, and drama will be holding a competition on Saturday, April 27th from 9am to 12pm in Music Hall on the UW-Madison campus. The first 20 applicants will compete to win one, all expense paid trip to St. Louis, MO to compete in the Phi Beta National Competition for Undergraduates. Prizes at the National Level are $1500, $1000, and $500. Applicants must be under 24 at the time of the National Competition (July 18th, 2002), must maintain a 3.0 GPA within their major and an overall 2.7 GPA. (Must be a music, art, dance, speech, drama, or other creative/performing arts major or minor) Presentation is limited to 8 minutes. If needed, must provide own accompaniment. Presentation must be memorized. To apply, please e-mail name, telephone number, address, name of school, standing (freshman, sophomore, junior, non-graduating senior, type of presentation (music, art, dance, speech, or drama), age, and approximate performance time to phibeta@hotmail.com