The Christmas schooner tells a timeless story ... as old as the pioneer spirit and as fresh as a new-cut pine ... a heart-warming story for all people ... for a nation of immigrants with the universal yearning to set the anchor of tradition against the rough seas of change. The critically acclaimed musical tells the dramatic true story of a Lake Michigan shipping captain who risked his life to share the Christmas spirit. It's 1882, and he and his crew brave the deadly November waters to bring Christmas trees from Michigan's Upper Peninsula to Chicago's homesick German immigrants. A musical holiday treasure for the entire family!
