

Nancy Anne Davis, a soprano, holds a Master's degree from the University of North Texas and a Bachelor's degree from Simpson College. Most recently, she participated in the Young Artist Festival in Bayreuth, Germany. She has also been a part of the Des Moines Metro Opera apprentice program, the Chauteville Foundation young artist program, and the Crested Butte Music Festival. She has worked with the Fort Worth Symphony where she performed the role of Madame Goldentrill in The Impresario. With the Des Moines Metro Opera she performed the role of Bridget Booth in The Crucible. Other roles include Despina in Così fan tutte, Miss Wordsworth in Albert Herring, La Feé in Cendrillon, Mrs. Nordstrom in A Little Night Music, Tytania in A Midsummer Night's Dream, Joanna in Sweeney Todd, and Susanna in The Marriage of Figaro.