

Linda Hartig, Flutist, is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where she earned an undergraduate degree in flute performance and Michigan State University where she received a Ph.D in Music History. After several years of private teaching, she earned a library degree at UW-Milwaukee, where she subsequently served as Music Librarian from 1986-1997. She is currently Reference Librarian at Carroll University and plays with the Waukesha Symphony and the Wisconsin Wind Orchestra.