

Milwaukee Youth Symphony Orchestra

After many years of planning and extraordinarily hard work on the part of many committed volunteers and staff members, our dream of a real home for Milwaukee Youth Symphony Orchestra (MYSO) and First Stage Children's Theater is finally coming true! As of January 19, 2005, the MYSO offices have relocated to our magnificent, new Milwaukee Youth Arts Center. As of January 21, 2005, our collaborator in this ambitious initiative, First Stage Children's Theater has moved as well. And—here's the best part!—all of the MYSO downtown rehearsals have transitioned over to this wonderful facility.

The Milwaukee Youth Arts Center is located at 325 W. Walnut Street, Milwaukee, WI 53212. It is located just a few blocks north and west of the Marcus Center and has good freeway and bus access. We can't begin to tell you how gratifying it has been to see the smiling faces of our MYSO students—and to hear the laudatory comments of awestruck parents—as we settle into the magnificent new Milwaukee Youth Arts Center, It's truly amazing, isn't it?!
