

Monica Verona, Pianist*, has appeared as soloist and chamber artist at the Salzburg International Music Festival, the Ravinia Festival, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Nicholas Roerich Museum, Steinway Hall, Goethe Institute, Tenri Cultural Institute, The American Landmark Festival Series, Brooklyn College, the Bloomingdale School of Music, Villa Terrace Museum, the Charles Allis Art Museum, the Donnell Library Series, and with members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. She holds degrees from the University of Wisconsin, Northern Illinois University, and the Manhattan School of Music where she studied with Karl Ulrich Schnabel and Naomi Zaslav, in addition to her collaboration with the Fine Arts Quartet and the Vermeer Quartet. Ms. Verona has been awarded prizes from the National Federation of Music Clubs, the Ida Schroeder Foundation and the Mu Phi Epsilon. She is currently president of the New York City Alumni Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon and a resident artist at the Bloomingdale School of Music in Manhattan.