

Violinist Andrea Wagoner combines her Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra activities with appearances as a soloist, recitalist and chamber player. A native of Springfield, Ohio, she gained a M.M. in violin performance from the Cleveland Institute of Music, where she studied with David Cerone. Ms. Wagoner subsequently performed with the New Jersey Symphony, Birmingham Symphony and the Piedmont Chamber Orchestra, before joining the Milwaukee Symphony in 1979. During summers she performs with husband Roger Ruggeri at the Grand Teton Music Festival in Wyoming.